

Youth Football Common Numbering System

Numbers 1 to 19 are worn by quarterbacks, kickers, and punters. (Wide receivers are also allowed to wear numbers between 10 and 19 if they so choose, even if there's an 80-89 number available).

Numbers 20 to 49 are worn by running backs, tight ends (between 40-49 when an 80-89 number is unavailable), cornerbacks and safeties.

Numbers 50 to 59 are worn by linebackers and offensive linemen.

Numbers 60 to 79 are worn by members of both the offensive line (the tackles, guards and centers) and defensive line (the defensive ends, defensive tackles or nose guard).

Numbers 80 to 89 are worn by wide receivers and tight ends.

Numbers 90 to 99 are worn by linebackers and defensive linemen.
